

Wicked Wonders Halloween Art Market
Saturday, October 29, 11 a.m. – 8 p.m.
5/3 Pavilion in Cheapside Park on Main Street.

A biting wind seeps into your bones. Zombies take over the streets. The shrieks and howls of mischief-makers fill the air. These are a few of the Halloween sights and sounds that set the stage for the first annual Wicked Wonders Market in Downtown Lexington.

Lexington Parks and Recreation's Cultural Arts Department would like to introduce the newest addition to the Thriller and Halloween parade festivities. To make sure we have plenty of curiosities on hand, we're filling Cheapside Park with ghoulish wares designed to thrill, chill and delight. It's a singularly bizarre bazaar, an excellently eerie venue for sellers to showcase their wares, be they wild or weird, sinister or spooky! We hope you will join us for the festivities at this first Wicked Wonders Market.

Wicked Wonders call for artists – come sell your wild wares downtown this Halloween

Applicants must provide five images that represent the work to be sold, in addition to one image and/or drawing of the proposed booth display. Artwork will be judged on these images and must be relevant to Halloween – whimsical and magical or macabre and spooky in nature. Please label each image as it corresponds to the application. Images can be emailed to sflora@lexingtonky.gov. Vendor application deadline is Friday, September 30 and is available at <https://www.lexingtonky.gov/thriller-and-halloween-parade>.
